

Unlock Hidden Savings In Your Supply Chain

Recover customs duties on goods that never stay in Canada.

Every year, Canadian businesses lose millions by not filing drawback claims. Beyond Clearance helps you turn compliance into cost recovery—without the headaches.

What is Duty Drawback?

The Canada Border Services Agency (CBSA) Duty Drawback Program refunds duties on imported goods that are later: - Exported - Destroyed under CBSA supervision - Used in the production of exported goods

Three Types of Refunds

01

Manufacturing Drawback

Imported materials used in exported manufactured articles.

02

Unused Merchandise Drawback

Goods exported or destroyed without being used in the U.S.

03

Rejected Merchandise Drawback

Defective, non-conforming, or unauthorized goods.

Eligibility at a Glance

- Duties must have been paid at import.
- Export or destruction up to 5 years of importation.
- Proof of export/destruction required.
- Claimant must be importer, exporter, or manufacturer with rights to claim.

Reduced Cash Flow

Capital remains tied up in unrecovered duties

The Risks of Ignoring Drawback

Compliance Gaps

Incomplete documentation invites CBP audits and denials.
